GOOD NEWS

The gospel is the good news about the deliverance from sin's curse and God's judgment that He has provided through faith in the atoning work of His Son, Jesus Christ.

It's the Bible's integrating theme, the underpinning of all biblical truth, the skeletal structure of Scripture, the scarlet thread that weaves together God's story of redemption.

Here's the gospel's essence. The infinite, transcendent God personally intervened by His grace in our helpless, hopeless condition when we were severed from Him by our rebellion. In love He sent His eternal Son to become a man and pay for our defiance through the perfect sacrifice of His blood on the cross. Now, risen and reigning, Jesus offers pardon and eternal life to all who will turn in faith from their sin to His salvation, from their rebellion to His rule, from their futile attempts at self-righteousness to the free gift of His righteousness.

You won't hear a message like that anywhere else. In other religions, man takes the initiative. In Christianity, God takes the initiative. We must commit our lives and energies to make this message known. The focus is Jesus. The message is the gospel. The task is the Great Commission.

"I love to tell the story, for those who know it best seem hungering and thirsting to hear it like the rest.
And when in scenes of glory I sing the new, new song,
'twill be the old, old story that I have loved so long.
I love to tell the story, 'twill be my theme in glory,
To tell the old, old story of Jesus and His love."
